(CENTI)MEETER
COUNTS

Meeter offers modular, banquet-style seating that seamlessly blends into any space. Design large seating areas, border compact wall edges and create work-friendly corners – the entire Meeter family is at your service.

Furniture that adapts

Meeter takes the unique features of a space into account. The module offers shallow seating, three different backrest heights, and comes in various lengths, allowing you to create versatile spaces for different functions.

Meeter brings people together

Meeter is built to be extremely durable, long-lasting, and easy to clean, making it perfect for all kinds of spaces – even high traffic areas. Meeter's modules can be used to furnish:

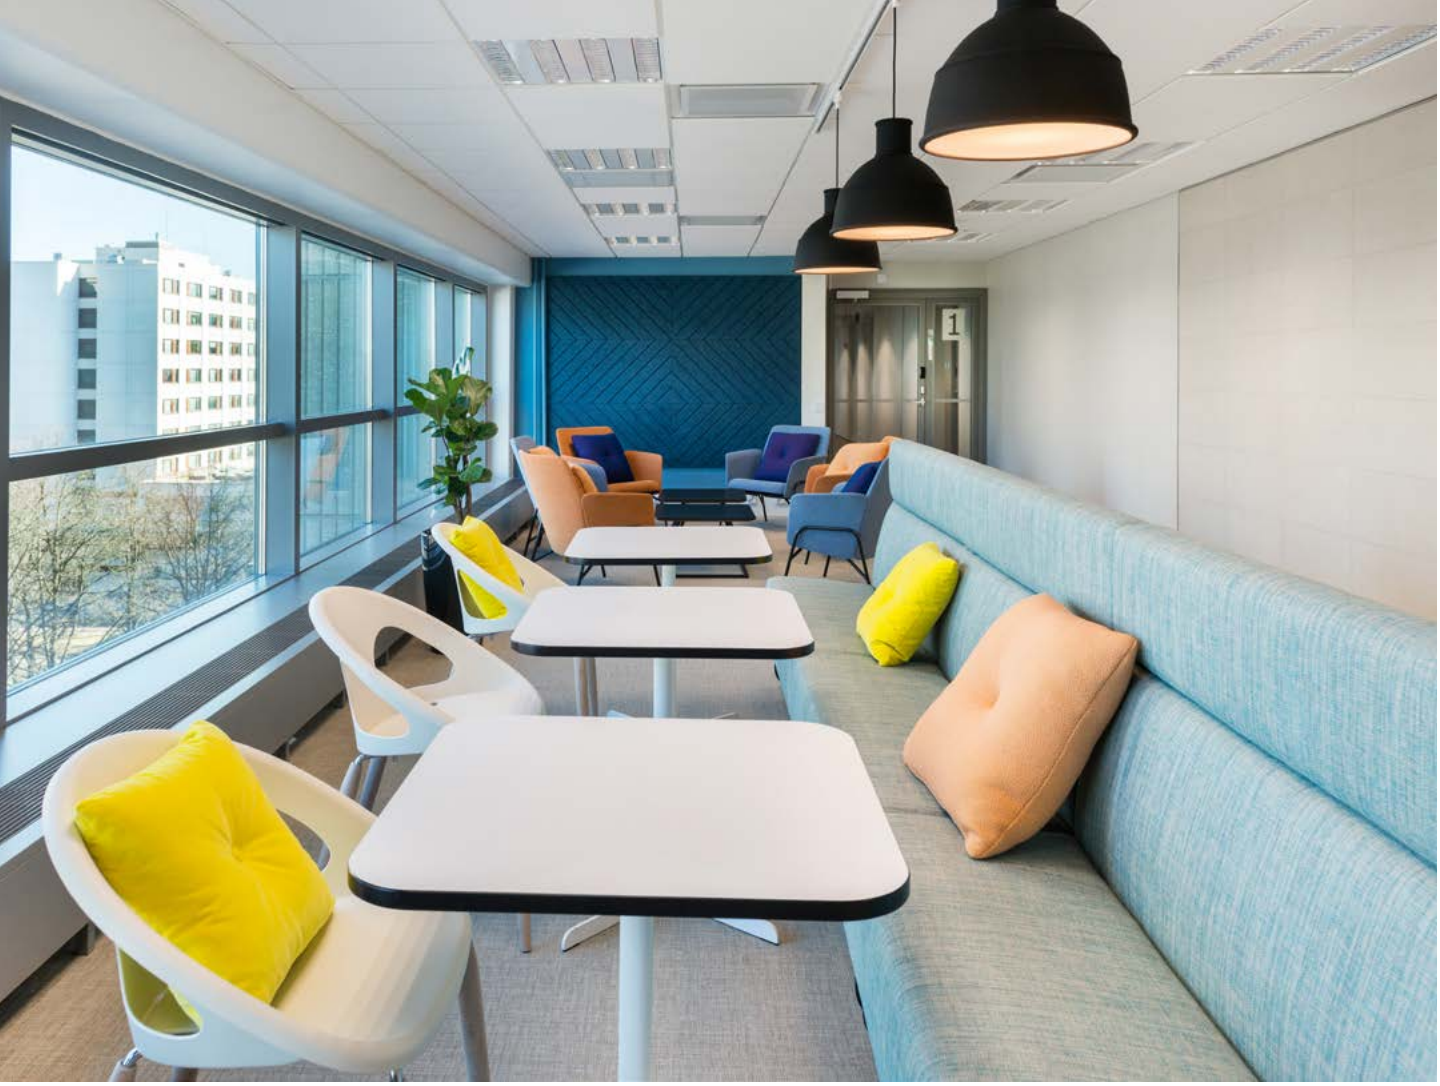

- cafés, restaurants, and office kitchenettes;
- meeting rooms and collaboration areas;
- lounges, rest areas, and private work areas;
- small niches, spaces under stairs and along the wall edges, where space is at a premium.

To date, we have produced over

11 km

of Meeter – that's more than 1.3x the height of Mount Everest!

The seat cushion, narrower than usual yet comfortable, fits into compact spaces.

MEETER IN A CAFÉ OR EATERY

Making the most of every centimetre is crucial in cafés, restaurants, and other eateries. Café furniture must also endure frequent use and cleaning. Fortunately, these are some of Meeter's key strengths.

Endless seating

Meeter sofa and armchair modules can be arranged into straight or wavy rows, along with tables of various capacities – perfectly suited to the available space.

In the office, an eatery furnished with Meeter can even double as a work area, as the shallow seat cushion not only saves space but also provides excellent back support and comfort.

If you need a complete set

The Aide table complements Meeter as an indispensable backdrop: timeless and solid, Aide is available in various dimensions and colours.
Meeter's planter boxes also function as room dividers, bringing greenery and tranquillity to your space while creating privacy.

Meeter is versatile, fitting in seamlessly in the atmosphere of both an elegant restaurant and a simple eatery.

MEETER IN MEETINGS AND THE OFFICE

Thanks to its durability and versatility, Meeter is used in offices, educational institutions, libraries, and more – wherever a group needs a comfortable and compact place to gather.

Large groups

To seat larger groups at one time, both the centre and wall edges of a room must be utilized. Meeter's flexible modules are infinitely combinable, allowing you to maximise any space. Meeter is also ideal for waiting areas.

Small groups

Modules placed opposite each other create 'islands' for working alone, meetings, or group work. Functionality is enhanced with auxiliary desks and integrated power solutions. The walls of Meeter Workbay provide privacy.

Meeter Workbay offers privacy – together or alone.

Use high backrests to separate groups, creating both visual and acoustic barriers.

Meeter series designer Argo Tamm

> Meeter is a prime example of a well-defined design brief and its outcome, fulfilling its function completely.

There were three criteria for its creation: client-adjustable width and height seating modules, compact enough to fit in smaller spaces and sufficiently neutral to avoid dominating over other interior elements.

Following the launch of the initial base models, client feedback and our analysis allowed us to expand our product range for this model. Over time, the Meeter family expanded to include an armchair, electrical outlets, curved versions, a plinth, workbay, and this list is still growing.

Generally, interest in products begins to wane after their fifth or sixth year on the market. This is not the case with Meeter. Every designer's goal should be to create something timeless and durable, so as not to overly burden the environment.
